

THINK THE IMAGE: GENERATIVE ART

A workshop, a bit different

Assignment 2

(FN 28 July 2020)

Very simple today, almost trivial, but you should really do it, try:
think about what the "generative principle" may or could be.

What do you yourself think it is?

Talk with your friends about it. Just a bit, during lunch time.

We will take it up online in the afternoon, which may not be so pleasurable.
But we could try.
